Exclusion of the right of cancellation

Pursuant to § 312g Par. 2 No. 9 BGB, there is no right of cancellation for contracts for services in connection with leisure activities if the contract provides for a specific date or period for the provision of the service. We would therefore like to point out that there is no right of revocation for the purchase of admission tickets for museums and exhibitions, tickets for participation in public guided tours and other public mediation offers, for the binding order of group tours.
